

Edge Financial Technologies Named Trading Technologies' Certified Partner

Date: 05/11/2009

CHICAGO - May 11th, 2009 - Trading Technologies International, Inc. (TT) and Edge Financial Technologies today announced that Edge Financial Technologies has been named a TT Certified Partner. Edge Financial Technologies has experienced consultants familiar with the TT software and APIs who can assist you in bringing your trading platform to a new level of success.

“Edge Financial is a valued member of our TT Developer Community. Their applications leverage TT’s X_TRADER®_API and FIX Adapter to extend the power of the Trading Technologies platform for our mutual clients.” - Jerry O’Connor, TT VP.

Edge Financial Technologies has created custom add-ons to the Trading Technologies software. With a proprietary approach to the process of development and testing, Edge Financial Technologies has created many successful deliverables for their clients.

“I have been extremely impressed and satisfied with the professionalism, service, and value creation realized by my relationship with Edge Financial Technologies. I routinely refer both sell-side and buy-side clients to them, in order to meet their trading infrastructure and technology needs.” - John Netto, a long time customer of TT and Edge Financial Technologies.

Edge Financial Technologies has worked with Trading Technologies' customers to automate trading strategies and build FIX connections to TT's FIX adapter. The firm specializes in creating automated and algorithmic trading solutions for clients utilizing TT’s software.

“Our focus on algorithmic trading, black box trading and low latency solutions has helped our customers increase their trading profits. Our suite of pre-built components for the TT platform allows us to give our customers a quick start in customizing applications.” – Jitesh Thakkar, President Edge Financial Technologies.
